

Published in The Halstad Journal on March 30th 1928.

Ordinance No. 18

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING AND LICENSING OFFENSIVE TRADES.

The village council of Shelly do ordain as follows:

Section 1. No person may engage in any trade or employment within this village which is hurtful to the inhabitants, or dangerous to the public health, or injurious to neighboring property, or from which noisome odors arise without first securing a permit therefor from the local board of health as provided by law.

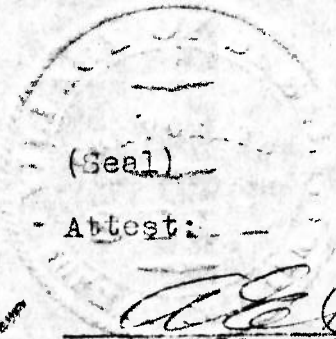

Section 2. The local board of health shall from time to time designate places within the village where such offensive trades or employments may be carried on, by orders filed with the village clerk, and may revoke the same by like orders.

Section 3. Within twenty-four hours after written notice of any revocation as provided in Section 2 hereof, every person exercising such trade or employment in the locality to which it relates, shall cease to do so.

Section 4. Within five days after receipt of notice as provided in Section 3 hereof, any party aggrieved by such order may appeal therefrom to the district court as provided by law. During the pendency of the appeal the business must not be carried on penalty of a dismissal of appeal.

Section 5. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction thereof be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Passed the villave council this 30th day of November, 1927.

A. B. Danenon,
President of the Council

A. E. Silver
Village Recorder